HŌKŪLEʻA CREW - ALOHA FRIDAY TALK STORY

FRIDAY, AUGUST 25

AT THE SHERATON PRINCESS KAIULANI

Join us as we welcome crew members from the famous Hōkūleʻa canoe of the Polynesian Voyaging Society.

Talk story with crew members as they share their experiences voyaging around the world, and the significance of perpetuating native cultures and protecting natural resources.

4:00 PM - 5:30 PM | Dolphin Lanai
KEIKI ACTIVITIES WITH THE CREW

Members from the Polynesian Voyaging Society will lead interactive presentations and demonstrations such as nautical knot tying and star navigation activities.

5:30 PM - 6:30 PM | Splash Bar
“TALK STORY” WITH HŌKŪLEʻA CREW MEMBERS

Meet the navigators behind Hōkūleʻa famous homecoming journey from Tahiti. Kaiulani Murphy, the first female navigator, David Komine from the Sheraton Princess Kaiulani, Captain Russell Amimoto, and Cat Fuller will share their incredible experiences from their milestone voyage around the globe.

Live music, plus food and cocktail specials at the Splash Bar from 4:30 pm–9:00 pm.

OPEN TO ALL GUESTS AND KAMAʻAINA
COMPLIMENTARY 4 HOUR PARKING WITH FOOD OR BEVERAGE PURCHASE.
